THE TOMBSTONE TROUBLES.

The cow boys have evidently taken possession of Tombstone. Wednesday an attempt was made to assassinate Marshal Earp, the man who participated in the shooting of the Lowrey boys a couple of months ago. As he was crossing one of the main streets his body was fairly riddled with bullets, fired by cow boys under cover of a vacant building. His wounds are of such a serious nature that the last reports indicate that he will certainly die. A few days ago Mayor Clum, the Tombstone Epitaph man, was fired at, and a large number of citizens who have incurred the enmity of the cow boys, have been threatened with summary vengeance. The present trouble at Tombstone grows out of the shooting of the Lowrey boys, in October last, by a clique known as the Earp-Holliday crowd. The shooting was the result of a feud of long standing between the parties, and was generally condemned by disinterested persons at the time as unwarranted in the extreme. It is understood that Mayor Clum has left Tombstone and gone to Washington, where he will endeavor to secure troops to quell the disturbances. If the Government interferes it is more than likely that a thorough investigation of the Tombstone troubles will be made, when its true inwardness will be discovered. Taking it all in all there is good deal of rottenness down in Tombstone that cannot be altogether attributable to cow-boy cussedness.

THE POLICE records of San Francisco would evidently indicate that the problem of over-production is being solved in a sad as well as horrible manner in that city. Every few days during the past year the Bay journals have chronicled the finding of the lifeless bodies of infants, from one hour to a day or two of age, on vacant lots, in vaults and various out of the way places. During the present month no less than seven dead children, all innocent babes, have been found, most of whom a post mortem examination have disclosed, were born alive. It is indeed a sad commentary on the moral and social progress of the present day when mothers will heartlessly murder their own offspring, either to shield themselves from shame or to shirk the responsibility and care of rearing their children.

AFTER a political existence of nearly a lifetime ex-Secretary of State Blaine has retired to the inactivity of ordinary business life. He will in future engage in the mining and railroad business.

THE investment of British capital at home and abroad is stated to be $17,325,000,000. This includes the bulk of the enormous British debt, estimated at $3,750,000.

IT SEEMS to be at last a settled fact that ex-Senator Sargent will be nominated by the President to be Secretary of the Interior in place of Kirkwood.

THE Committee on Elections of the House will probably decide the Cannon-Campbell case by calling for a new election.

THE WIRE'S WORK.

What Congressman Frank Page Says on Current Topics.

Attempted Murder of Tombstone's Marshal—The Criminal Calendar—The Guiteau Trial—Capital Notes.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Congressman Page and wife arrived from Washington last evening. When asked by a reporter what he thought about the formation of the House Committees generally, he replied: "Well, some mistakes were made, but I think on the whole that Keifer did well." Speaking about the appointment of Sargent as Secretary of the Interior, Page said: "Every reputable Republican in the West favors Sargent for the position, and I cannot understand why anyone should raise a howl against him." He was then asked if he thought Congress would take any action regarding Chinese immigration during the present session. He replied: "I have no doubt of that. Some measure will probably be passed to restrict Chinese immigration in accordance with the treaty agreed upon about a year ago between China and the United States."

CAPERS OF COWBOYS.

A Dastardly Attempt at Assassination at Tombstone.

TOMBSTONE, A. T., Dec. 29.—Last night about half-past 11 o'clock, as the United States Deputy Marshal was crossing Fifth street, between the Oriental Saloon and Eagle Brewery, and when in the middle of the street, he was fired upon with double-barreled shotguns loaded with buckshot, by three men concealed in an unfinished building diagonally across on Allen street. Five shots were fired in rapid succession. Marshal Earp was wounded in the left arm just above the elbow, producing a longitudinal fracture of the bone. One shot struck him above the groin, coming out near the spine. The wounds are very dangerous, possibly mortal. The men ran through the rear building and escaped in the darkness back of the Vizina hoisting works. Nineteen shots struck the side of the Eagle Brewery, three going through the window, one shot passing about a foot above the men's heads standing by a faro table. Not long ago a cowboy gang threatened the lives of Mayor Clum, Judge Spicer, Marshall Williams the agent of Wells, Fargo & Co., the Earps and Holliday, and this is an attempt to carry the threats into execution. Intense feeling exists in the minds of the better classes of citizens at this dastardly attempt at assassination.

A LATER REPORT.

The condition of U. S. Deputy Marshal Earp is critical. The surgeons this afternoon took out the fractured bone in the arm above the elbow. The shot penetrating the back above the left hip passed through the body and lodged near a point in the hip bone above the groin. The doctor says there are four chances in five that he will die. The local authorities are doing nothing to capture the assassins so far as known. Telegrams have been sent to U. S. Marshal Dake, at Prescott, notifying him of the state of affairs here. Judge Spicer, Marshall Williams, Wyatt Earp, Rickabaugh and others are in momentary danger of assassination.

A CRANKY CRANK.

This morning a crank named Reilly started down Allen street with a Winchester rifle in his hands, which caused great excitement. The officers arrested him without damage. The same man tried to jump down the Flora Morrison shaft a week ago, but was prevented by men at work in the mine. He is said to be crazy from the effects of hard drink.

WASHINGTON WHISPERS.

The Cannon-Campbell Case—Vacation of Vancouver Arsenal.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The Washington Star says: The general sentiment of members of the House Committee on Elections in regard to the Cannon-Campbell case from Utah is that neither of them is entitled to a seat in the House. The committee will first examine into the subject of whether Cannon is or is not an alien. The final decision will, however, be, in all probability, that the whole matter be referred back to the people of Utah for a new election.

CHENG TSAO'S CALL.

Cheng Tsao, the new Chinese Minister, accompanied by Bartlett, the American Secretary of Legation as interpreter, called at the State Department this afternoon and paid the acting Secretary of State the customary visit of ceremony which precedes the informal presentation to the President.

VANCOUVER ARSENAL TO BE VACATED.

Orders are about to be issued from the War Department to discontinue the arsenal at Vancouver, Washington Territory, and turn the building over for the use of troops.

The Secretary of the Interior has declined to reopen the land scrip cases, which affect the title of lands in and near Chicogo.

A GOOD IDEA.

It is believed that in the contest between Campbell and Cannon neither will be seated, and that an effort will be made to deprive Utah of representation so long as polygamy is practiced. A strong disposition is shown by members to take extreme measures with the question, including a change in the rules for evidence, which will render conviction on a charge of polygamy possible, and the disqualification of polygamists for office. It is also proposed to abolish the Utah Legislature and substitute a Council appointed by the President.

Death at a Dance.

MACON, Ga., Dec. 29.—At Round Oak, Jones county, Jack W. Gray interfered with a negro dance on Monday night, and was fatally stabbed by three negro brothers, Bob, Henry and Alex Jackson. Gray fired into the brothers, killing all three. Gray crowded out of the house and died on the steps.

Killed While Escaping.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec., 29.—Ed. Nelms, the negro murderer who with six others recently escaped from Hernands, Miss., jail, was shot and killed early this morning by Chief of Police W. C. Davis, while making for the Arkansas shore with others.

Jealousy's Doings.

BIDDEFORD, Me., Dec. 29.—Len Moore, clerk in the Boston Home, celebrated the Christmas holidays to-day by shooting his affianced, Miss Bell Cushman, and then killing himself. Both were of highly respected families. Jealousy was the cause.

An Actor Ill.

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 29.—Samuel W. Piercy, a leading actor of Edwin Booth's company, now filling an engagement at the Park Theatre in this city, is seriously ill with the typhoid fever.

THE ASSASSIN'S TRIAL.

The Jury Apparently Convinced that He is Guilty.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—The court was densely packed despite the rainy weather. There is a rumor current this morning that the jury, with one exception, are satisfied of the guilt and legal responsibility of the prisoner. The twelfth juror, it is said, stoutly maintains that Guiteau is as crazy as a March hare. The prisoner was taken without demonstration to the prisoner's dock. This is located about 25 feet from the counsel upon the left of the room. A narrow passage separates it from a large window which overlooks Louisiana avenue.

THE REGULAR SPEECH.

Guiteau glanced around the room and then out of the window, then evinced some nervousness at his apparently exposed position. Guiteau started in to make his usual morning speech. "I noticed," he said, "as I was upon the van this morning, that the usual guard of police had been withdrawn. Now, I want to say, emphatically, if I was turned out to-morrow I would take care of myself, but so long as I am in the custody of this court it is bound to protect me. There is more danger of my being shot when riding to and from the jail in the van than at any other time, and I want your Honor to make an order that the usual guard shall accompany me. The cranks are not all dead yet, though they are fast dying off. As a matter of fact it would require but one crank, with sufficient nerve, to shoot me in the van. That's where the most danger lies. I'm making more friends every day and getting lots of letters of sympathy. I don't anticipate any danger except from cranks."

EXPERTS ON THE STAND.

Dr. Cullender was called. Before any question was put Judge Cox remarked that as the statement was made yesterday that the Court surrounded the prisoner with unusual guards and protection he would state that the prisoner was in the custody of the Marshal and not of the Court, and whatever extra guards had been furnished had been supplied by him.

Guiteau—"Well, then, your Honor, if the Marshal won't do his duty, I appeal to the Court. If the Marshal won't furnish the proper guard, kick him out and let's have a new Marshal."

Scoville desired to exhibit to the witness, as an expert, a letter written by Guiteau some ten days since to Senator Don Cameron.

Scoville asked Dr. Cullender: "Will you give your opinion whether such a letter as that, written to a man he did not know, does not indicate unsoundness of mind?" Answer—"I don't think it indicates unsoundness of mind. It seems to me consistent with his character and habit through life of soliciting money from sources where he had no reason to expect it."

AFTERNOON SESSION.

On the convening of the Court this afternoon Guiteau opened the proceedings with a request for paper and ink. "If your Honor please," he remarked, "I have a good many letters here that require to be answered. If I could have paper, pen and ink I would put in a great deal of my time here to advantage."

The throng that besieged the doors of the court room this afternoon was greater than upon any previous occasion, and hundreds were unable to gain admission.

The Intentions of Jones.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—A special from Washington says that it is reported that Representative Geo. W. Jones (Tex.) has determined within a few days to make a canvass in Texas as a candidate for Governor, as an Independent. Jones has had the subject under consideration for some time, but it is only since he has been here in attendance at Congress, that he has finally made up his mind.

Victorious Carver.

LONDON, Dec. 29.—A pigeon shooting match for £100 a side, hundred pigeons each, came off to-day between Dr. Carver and Graham. The match resulted in the defeat of the latter. Carver shot at thirty yards rise and Graham at twenty-eight yards. Dr. Carver hit 76 birds; Graham 64 birds.

Hanged by a Mob.

SHREVEPORT, La., Dec. 29.—Col. L. M. Bell, a planter dwelling near Hamburg, Ark., near the Arkansas line, said to have so brutally beaten and abused his intelligent and refined lady that she died Monday. She was buried by friends. This cruel death so excited the neighborhood that a mob was organized Tuesday night, who took Bell from his home and hanged him to a tree, where his body was found suspended yesterday.

Sargent and Page.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—The Advertiser's Washington special says that the best informed politicians here no longer entertain any doubt as to the appointment of Sargent to the Interior Department. A gentleman who enjoys the President's confidence says he knows the matter is practically settled that Sargent will succeed Secretary Kirkwood next month.

Page has not yet suspended his efforts to get Director of the Mint Burchard ousted, and he has enlisted the support of other Congressmen in the fight. Those opposed to Burchard profess to believe that a change will be made before many months have passed, and that some one will be appointed who is more in sympathy with the East on the silver question.

A Crowd of Widowers.

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—The Evening Journal's Washington special says: The President, Vice-President, Secretary of the Treasury, Postmaster-General and new Judge of the Supreme Court are all widowers.

The indications are that ex-Senator Sargent of California will be nominated for the Cabinet. There will be a decided opposition to his confirmation on the ground that the stalwarts are getting too much of the spoils.

The Day at Hand.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 29.—The first through train from St. Louis to San Francisco via the Iron Mountain, Texas Pacific and Southern Pacific roads will leave here Sunday morning next. A train will also leave here via the Missouri Pacific and Missouri, Kansas and Texas and connect with the above through train at Fort Worth, Texas.

Murdered for Money.

VIRGINIA, Nev., Dec. 29.—Last evening the toll-house at Six-mile canon was discovered to be on fire. The house had been kept for years by Periander Pollock and wife, a very respectable old couple. Their bodies were found lying in the front room. It is supposed the murder was committed by some one who thought the old people had a large sum of money about the premises.

'FRISCO FANCIES.

The Chamber of Commerce and The Harbor Defence.

An Important Stock Suit—Suicide of a Baptist Divine—An Actor's Serious Illness—The Stocks and Wheat.

[Associated Press Dispatches.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 29.—At a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to-day a letter was read from Senator Miller in reply to the communication sent him by the Chamber respecting the insufficiency of harbor defenses on the Pacific Coast. Senator Miller said in his letter that the matter of harbor defenses on this coast should receive his early earnest attention and hearty support.

A STOCK SUIT.

A suit was instituted to-day in the Superior Court by C. W. Keeney vs. George D. Roberts. The plaintiff claims that about March 10, 1878, he let the defendant have 8,000 shares of stock in the Star Mining Company, valued at $18,000, to be used for the joint benefit of both; that the plaintiff and defendant entered into partnership; that the latter has made no return to the former of the profits of the partnership; that the defendant, upon receiving the stock had delivered it to his brother, J. W. Roberts, for the purpose of concealing from the plaintiff his operations; that the defendant hypothicated the stock and obtained credit of $15,000; that he went to New York, taking with him all the partnership property and by trading thereon accumulated property worth $1,500,000; that the defendant had refused to render any statement of accounts. The plaintiff asked for an order dissolving the partnership and judgment for one half of all the profits, in the sum of $835,000.

HIS LAST SERMON.

Rev. Charles Wesley Hewes, pastor of the Fifth Baptist Crurch at the Mission, committed suicide to-day at the residence of his son in Oakland. He had been acting strangely for some time and his family feared he was becoming mentally deranged. Although closely watched, he managed to escape notice for a brief time, when he committed the fatal act. The deceased was 64 years old, and a native of Massachusetts. He was pastor at one time of the Baptist church at Healdsburg, also at St. Helena. Subsequently he was instructor at Mills' Seminary and Wadsworth school. He succeeded Rev. I. M. Kalloch as pastor at the Mission. He leaves a widow and two grown sons.

PIERCY'S ILLNESS EXAGGERATED.

Edwin Booth telegraphs to-day from Boston to Mrs. Piercy of this city (mother of Samuel W. Piercy, the young California actor) that reports concerning his serious illness were greatly exaggerated. Piercy is not dangerously ill but unable to play at present.

THE SURVEY OF THE ALASKAN COAST.

A special meeting was held to-day by the Chamber of Commerce relative to the Survey of the Alaskan coast. The meeting was addressed by Prof. George Davidson of the United States Coast and Geodetic survey, who has visited Alaska several times, and who stated that the survey of the region would be of great commercial importance. The Pacific Coast Chamber of Commerce unanimously adopted a resolution asking Congress to make a sufficient appropriation for a continued and a complete survey of Alaska with reference to her varied resources.

LINCOLN, Col., Dec. 29.—A wood chopper named Henry M. Smith was found dead in his bed in a cabin near this place yesterday. The evidence disclosed that the deceased had been murdered and placed in his bed afterwards by some parties as yet unknown.

A Bloody Battle.

MOBILE, Dec. 29.—A horrible tragedy occurred in Baldwin county, opposite Mobile. Joel Johnston, a well-known citizen, was shot from behind a tree by a negro. His brother, Abe Johnston, Deputy Sheriff, attempted to arrest the negro, who drew his pistol. Johnston then shot him and the negro shot Johnston, both dying in a few minutes.

GALVESTON, Dec. 29.—The military at San Antonio is non-committal regarding the Flipper sentence. It is rumored that he has been dismissed from the service.

A Mute's Murder.

A Free Fight.

ATLANTA, Dec. 29.—Yesterday at Duburay, Upson county, in a general fight Doc Wilson was killed. Ed Johnson, his half brother, and Brad Grad Garland killed B. Harris. The fight was with knives.

A Russian Riot.

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 29.—The rioting at Warsaw lasted three days, during which time many Jews were killed and injured, their houses and shops wrecked and the Jewish quarters given over to sack. The ability of the authorities to restrain the mob is doubtful.

The Mormon Tabernacle at Salt Lake City, which has been twenty-eight years in process of construction, and is not yet completed, has granite walls 9 feet 4 inches thick, is 250 feet in diameter, and seats 12,000 persons. It is a perfect whispering gallery, and the dropping of a pin or the rustle of a dress can be heard from one side to the other.

The city of New York will probably commence a suit against the temperance societies on account of the water famine.

ARIZONA AFFAIRS.

Thomas Gardiner's Views on the Cowboy Nuisance.

Something About Tombstone and Her Aspiring Mayor—Business in the Territories—A Spicy Interview.

Last evening Thomas Gardiner, formerly of the TIMES, returned to the city of love and angels, after a trip through Arizona and New Mexico, looking as hale and hearty, and if possible, more business-like than ever before. Mr. Gardiner left here a few weeks ago on a business trip East. Knowing that he would make close inspection of the business outlook at the various places on his route a TIMES reporter approached him and put a few questions, which were answered in his usual prompt and clear manner.

"How is business in Arizona at present?" asked the news-gatherer.

"Never looked more prosperous since the country was invented. In fact Arizona and New Mexico will be lively as long as the merry voice of the cow-boys is heard singing like a cricket near a winter's fire. The cow-boy is to New Mexico and Arizona what the old forty-niner was to California in early days, only more so. He is not half as bad as he is painted, however, and if the people would treat him as a wild animal ought to be treated he would soon be as tame and useful as a well-trained mustang."

"The cow boys are making things pretty lively for the pensive christian about this time, ain't they?"

"Yes; they are giving them a slight brush, just for pastime. But then it makes business good, and the people can afford to pay well for such lively promotors of commerce as these frisky boys."

"The Tucson papers had something about the cow boys driving the Mayor of Tombstone out of town the other day. Did you hear any thing in connection with this little drama in real life."

"Oh, yes, the Hon. John P. Clum jumped the train I was on, looking paler than ever before. He had been shot at the night previous and was the worst scared man I have seen for some time. In passing Deming he crawled under a seat, tramp fashion, to keep the cowboys from raising his hair in case they happened to pass through the cars."

"They must think a great deal of his lordship there?"

"Oh, yes, they love him like a negro loves black molasses."

"Where was he going?"

"It was believed on the train that he was on his way to Washington to put in a bid for the Gubernatorial chair of Arizona, or any other office he could lay his hands on."

"Was there any one with the Mayor?"

"Yes, Colonel Tiffiny was propped up in one end of the car."

"What was he up to?"

"Well he and the Mayor had put their heads together and determined to monopolize the offices of the Territory. One wants the Governorship and the other desires to be boss of the Indians."

Mr. Gardiner seems to think that the trade between Los Angeles and the territories will be greatly increased in the next year. It is impossible for that country to grow vegetables and fruits and they must necessarily depend on Los Angeles for everything they get in that line.

ABOUT TOWN.

All the cases not tried by Judge Hines during the absence of Judge Sepulveda, have been reset.

The Los Angeles Telephone Company has upwards of sixty telephones in working order at present.

Acacia Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will give a social at their lodge room, McDonald Block, to-morrow evening.

Prof. Read thinks of giving another entertainment before leaving town. His performance, if repeated, will be well worth seeing.

Wm. Bell, of the firm of W. Well & Co., Gulph, Ont., arrived in town last night, on a visit to his family who are at the Cosmopolitan.

The Southern Pacific express train was an hour and a half late yesterday evening. The delay was caused by a break on an engine at Raloon on the Atchison & Santa Fe Railroad.

A Lover's Letter.

The world has for more than a hundred years looked with admiring and loving eyes upon the handsome and beautiful girls and the noble lovers of Shanta Ana. But the following effusion penned by a Shanta Ana lover absorbs the oat meal for any thing of the kind that has been picked up in those parts for some time past. It reads this way:

"DEAR CARRIE:—I received your letter, but want to know why you did not send your photograph to me? You sent one to Curtis. Well, that is all right—that is all you think of me, after all the time I went with you, and all that it has cost me for to go with you. Oh, Carrie! you do not know what it has cost me; but that is all right, old girl, I guess I can stand this lay-off.

Santa Ana, December 25, 1881."

Carrie is evidently a Los Angeles angel, and from the tone of his complaint, has gone back on Shanta Ana. The young man is well-known in that burg, and perhaps will be consoled by some of the fair Shanta Ana girls before another Christmas rolls around.

A Farmer in Trouble.

An old granger just in from the sacred precincts of Hayseed Hollow was driving one of the old style cover-all-the-street hay wagons noted in the fourth century, when ker-bang slam, she went up against the large sign of McMenomy's store on First street, between Main and Spring. The old fellow was surprised and could not see the point until the proprietor came out and demanded payment for the damage done. He paid it and departed, cussing himself and the old wagon bed in the most frightful West American style.

A Joke on the Editor.

The editor of this paper has been played upon by the fly jokers of the Cosmopolitan hotel. It was thusly: He expected a friend on the overland train; he knew that the hotel coach would leave the house at about 4:30 so he went down and hopped up on top. After sitting there for about forty minutes he began to get anxious. He looked at his watch and then at the clear blue sky. Finally his left optic came down from the heavenly bodies, and he brought it with a sickly smile on a crowd of about thirty of the gang grinning at him from the hotel office. Two minutes after he might have been seen in his den writing an editorial on the cussedness of the human family. The train he expected to go down and meet was three hours late.

The Rain Won't Come.

Still the glorious rain holdeth off. It is in order for the prayer and fast believers to commence the work of salvation, as the honest farmer will be in a flabergasted state of irresplicated combustibility before the end of 1882.

A False Alarm.

An alarm of fire was turned in from box 32⅔ last evening about 6:30. The companies were out on time, but after a short run returned to their engine houses, it being a false alarm.

Mr. Whittier, in a note to the Sword and Pen, says that for the last two or three years the state of his health has compelled him to decline all requests for poems for public occasions. "'The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.' Apart from this, at the age of seventy-four, the poetical machine is likely to be out of order, and the sound of the grinding is low. Dr. Holmes is an exception; he, despite his years, could do what thee asks."

Conjurers astonish an audience by taking rolls of ribbon from their mouths, but then it is a common thing to see a carpenter take a hammer and nails out of his chest.—Boston Commercial Bulletin.

A POLAR PLAN.

The Novel Idea of a Sea Captain To Reach the Pole.

After Studying for Years He Solves the Problem by Deciding to Build a Railroad To the Mystic Region.

The latest scheme heard of in these parts for reaching the north pole is rather a novel one, and will probably work if properly carried out. For more than five years past an old down east fisherman and sea captain has been living in Los Angeles in a state of seclusion on Los Angeles street. He resides in a peculiar old shanty near Fourth street. Persons living in the vicinity have been mystified by the old man's conduct, and have made various efforts to learn the cause of his strange conduct, in staying in his little house almost day and night. It seems that the old fellow has been drawing plans and maps, and studying numerous books all most the entire time. It has created so much comment that a TIMES reporter called upon him yesterday and was well treated. The news-gatherer found him surrounded with books, charts, maps and scientific apparatus. He had a full and complete library on the Polar regions, and was hard at his studies when interrupted.

A POLAR ENTHUSIAST.

"It would seem that you were running a scientific library, from the books and apparatus packed in your room," said the knight of the lead pencil, as he entered the apartment.

"Well, yes, it would look that way; but the fact is I am doing nothing of the kind. You see I am an old traveler, both by sea and land, and I have determined to visit the north pole before I turn up my toes to the daisies. I have cruised in the north seas for the past twenty years, and think I am about as well posted on that country as any man who has ever been up there."

"How long have you been here?"

"For about four years and a half."

"Why did you come here to prosecute your studies? Would it not be better to go to some large city where you could have better facilities for carrying out your scheme?"

"You have heard that old sea dogs are superstitious, and it is true. When I first thought of this scheme I dreamed three times in succession that I was among angels. I was puzzled and could not think what was up until I happened to run across the name 'Los Angeles' on the map. I immediately saw what the dreams meant and started at once for your beautiful city, where I have been ever since. I have worked almost day and night since I came here, and now I am ready, or will be by spring, to start on my long voyage. I will make arrangements with the U. S. government to fit me out if they think my plans feasible. If not then I will carry out my plans alone. I have means and feel that within the next twelve months I will be at the north pole."

A RAILROAD SCHEME.

"When do you intend to leave on your northern trip, and where will you sail from?"

"I shall go to San Francisco within the next two or three weeks, complete my preparations, then I will put my plans in the proper hands to make a good showing to the Government, and will then wait in San Francisco until the thing is settled one way or another. If the Government will not touch it I will get the best ship I can procure, gather up a good crew, and start as soon as possible. You see I am getting old and I can't afford to wait long. I have now spent much more time in this study than I ever expected when I took it up."

"What is your name?"

"John Small. I am a native of Maine and I think I can stand as much cold as any man with sixty-four years hanging over his head in the United States."

"Do you object to telling what your plan is?"

"I hardly know whether it would be proper to give it away or not. But it don't make any difference anyway. You see when I get all ready to start my principal cargo will consist of iron rails. When I get my vessel as near the pole as she can go I will start in to lay a railroad track, and as we get it put down to the pole all we will have to do will be to jump on a first-class passenger train and ride up to the pole and discover it. Do you tumble?"

The reporter did tumble, and he tumbled so hard that he has been quite sick ever since.

McCURDY'S WRATH.

He Thrashes a Fellow-Citizen for Calling Him a Bilk.

There was a lively case tried before Judge Fisher yesterday. Daniel Smith visited the domicile of G. G. W. McCurdy a few days ago to see Smith's friend Vickery, who was stopping with McCurdy. The houses of Smith and McCurdy have been at outs for some time past, and when Smith entered, Mc. started for another room, as he didn't want to come in contact with his enemy. But a key hole tempted Mc. and he clapped his right ear to the hole and heard Smith say "Mc. is a bilk and no one will trust him."

This was too much for Mc. and he entered the room foaming at the mouth and ordered Smith to depart on the double quick. Smith was not quite lively enough, so Mc. sailed in and waxed him a few times under the left eye. For this little lesson Smith had Mc. arrested and tried by twelve of his peers. The twelve honest citizens after listening to both stories and a long charge from the court, discharged Mc.
